“Freedom and Fulfillment”
Romans Chapter 8

Freedom from Judgment - No Condemnation (Romans 8:1-4)

Freedom from Defeat - No Obligation (Romans 8:5-17)

Freedom from Discouragement No Frustration (Romans 8:18-30)

Freedom from Fear - No Separation (Romans 8:31-39)

“It’s Me and God”
Romans 8:31-39

Five arguments that’s proves “It’s Me and God!”

I. God is for me (v. 31)

31. What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

II. Christ died for me (v. 32)

32. He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all — how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

III. God has justified me (v. 33)

33. Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies.

IV. Christ intercedes for me (v. 34)

34. Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died — more than that, who was raised to life — is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

V. Christ loves me (vv. 35-39)

35. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36. As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." 37. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39. neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
