“BE VICTORIOUS”
*REVELATION

The Revelation of Jesus Christ as revealed by John has challenged and fascinated Bible students for years. Human nature has always been interested in the future and unfortunately many have strong desires to control or manipulate the outcome. What is important for us to remember as we study this book and enjoy the remaining days we have in this world, is the major message of Revelation: the fabulous victory of Jesus Christ over all His enemies. It would be an absolute tragedy for us as Bible students to get so lost in the details of this mind-blowing prophecy that we miss its tremendous truth that in Jesus Christ, we are over comers.

John wrote this book to encourage Christians who were experiencing great suffering. This book is a symbol of comfort and hope. We will study the symbols and seek God’s wisdom in understanding the timeless promises and eternal values that may be trusted by all believers. We will not venture from the fact that Jesus Christ is the Conqueror, and all believers share in His victory. And finally we can face life challenges with confidence knowing that God is with us and will never leave us or forsake us because we are already victories based on what He has already done. In Christ we are “over comers”, we are “Victorious!”

Introduction, Revelation: Key to the Future

I. Warnings Ignored

2 Peter 3:3

3. First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires.

Matthew 6:34

34. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Genesis 3:15

15. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

Isaiah 53:3-7

3. He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. ⁴ Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. ⁵ But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed.

⁶ We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. ⁷ He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

Acts 1:11

11. "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

Revelation 1:1-2

*1. The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John,
2. who testifies to everything he saw — that is, the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.*

1 Thessalonians 4:17

17. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever.

Daniel 7:14

14. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

Matthew 24:3

3. As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

II. The Great Cover Story

1Thessalonians 5:3

3. While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

Daniel 12:9-10

9. He replied, "Go your way, Daniel, because the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. 10. Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.

Revelation 22:10

10. Then he told me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near.

Revelation 1:19

19. "Write, therefore, what you have seen, what is now and what will take place later.

Revelation 1:16

16. In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in all its brilliance.

Revelation 1:20

20. The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels^c of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 1:13

13. and among the lampstands was someone "like a son of man," dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet and with a golden sash around his chest.

Revelation 1:20

20. The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels^c of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 5:6

6. Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Revelation 22:18-19

18. I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book. 19. And if anyone takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from him his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

There are seven blessings in the book:

1. Blessed is the one who reads the prophecy.

Revelation 1:3

3. Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

2. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

Revelation 19:9

9. Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!'" And he added, "These are the true words of God."

5. Blessed are those who have part in the first resurrection.

Revelation 20:6

6. Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.

6. Blessed are those who keep the words of the prophecy in this book.

Revelation 22:7

7. "Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy in this book."

7. Blessed are those who wash their robes.

Revelation 22:14

14. "Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city.

The Jesus of Revelation is not the humble carpenter or the teacher with worn sandals. He is "His Majesty King Jesus"! He is the ruler of the kings, the King of kings.

He is King of Heaven Daniel 4:37

He is King of the Jews Matthew 2:2

He is King of Israel John 1:49

He is King of the Ages 1 Timothy 1:17

He is King of Glory Psalm 24:7

He is King of Saints Revelation 15:3

He is King of kings Revelation 19:16

Revelation 1:7

7. Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and all the peoples of the earth will mourn because of him.

So shall it be! Amen.

The Sequence of Events of Eschatology

Rapture of the Church

The Rapture of the Church is a phrase used to refer to the "catching up" of the church to be with Christ before his Second Coming. The dead in Christ will be raised first and join those that are alive in Christ second and escorted to a heavenly place of rest from their earthly labor.

1 Thessalonians 4:15-17

15. According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever.

The Judgment Seat of Christ

This judgment for believers is described in the books of 2 Corinthians, Matthew and 2 Timothy.

2 Corinthians 5:10

10. "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad."

Matthew 16:27

27. For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father's glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done.

2 Timothy 4:8

8. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day — and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

The manifestation of the believer's works is rewarded in this judgment. It is most emphatically not a judgment of the believer's sins. The believer's sins have been fully atoned for in the substitutionary death of Christ, and remembered no more according to Hebrews 10:17. It is necessary, however, for the service of every child of God be scrutinized and evaluated as indicated in Matthew 12:36; Romans 14:10; Galatians 6:7; Ephesians 6:8; and Colossians 3:24-25. As a result of this judgment of the believer's works, there will be reward or loss of reward. In any event, all truly born-again believer will be saved as stated in 1 Corinthians 3:11-15. The judgment seat of Christ, literally bema judgment, is set up in heaven prior to Christ's glorious second coming to prepare for His earthly rule in the millennial kingdom. The rapture of the church, according to 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 and 1 Corinthians 15:51-58, must first be fulfilled. The judgment seat of Christ is necessary for the appointment of places of ruler ship and authority with Christ in His role of "King of kings and Lord of lords" in power and glory.

The Tribulation

The "Great Tribulation," is a short but intense period of distress and suffering at the end of time, that is hinted at in the Old Testament books of Deuteronomy 4:30 and Daniel 12:1. This period of distress was mentioned by Jesus in His "Olivet Discourse" in the books of Matthew 24:15-31; Mark 13:14-27; and Luke 21:25-28. The book of Revelation prophesied that some will make it out of the great tribulation in chapter seven verse fourteen. It is distinguished from God's specific wrath upon the unbelieving world at the end of the age in Romans 2:5-10.

Matthew 24:21

21. For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now — and never to be equaled again.

The War of Armageddon

The site of the final battle of this age in which God intervenes to destroy the armies of Satan and to cast Satan into the bottomless pit as described in Revelation 16:16; 20:1-3,7-10. Scholars disagree about the exact location of this battle, but a likely possibility is the valley between Mount Carmel and the city of Jezreel. This valley was the crossroads of two ancient trade routes and was a strategic military site.

Armageddon is the Greek word for this area, which was the scene of many ancient battles. Because of this history, Megiddo became a symbol of the final conflict between God and the forces of evil. According to the Book of Revelation, at Armageddon "the cup of the wine of the fierceness of God's wrath" (Revelation 16:19) will be poured out, and the forces of evil will be overthrown and destroyed.

The Judgment of Nations

The Judgment of the Nations is referred to in Matthew 25:31-46. It involves the divine dealing with the nations on the basis of their treatment of Israel. The "goat" nations on the left hand involve those peoples who are sent to the lake of fire. The "sheep" nations on the right hand enter the millennial kingdom. The peculiar basis of this judgment is the way all nations have dealt with Israel during the Tribulation period preceding the second advent of Christ. Old Testament prophecy is clear in its prediction that some Gentile nations will enter the coming kingdom of Israel as stated in Isaiah 60:3; 61:6; 62:2.

Matthew 25:31-46

31. "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne in heavenly glory. 32. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33. He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. 34. "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. 35. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36. I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.' 37. "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38. When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? 39. When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?' 40. "The King will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.' 41. "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. 42. For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, 43. I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.' 44. "They also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?' 45. "He will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.' 46. "Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

The Millennium

The thousand-year period mentioned in connection with the description of Christ's coming to reign with His saints over the earth (Revelation 19:11-16; 20:1-9). Many Old Testament passages refer to the millennium (Isaiah 11:4; Jeremiah 3:17; Zechariah 14:9). These and many other Old Testament passages are often taken to refer only to the thousand-year period itself.

However, it is often difficult in these passages to see a clear dividing line between the earthly period of the millennium and the eternal state of new heavens and earth. Therefore, it is best to allow Revelation 20 to be our primary source for details relating to the millennium. The other great promises to Israel, while they have a temporary fulfillment in the thousand years, still await the fullness of the new heavens and new earth and the unhindered presence of Jesus Christ our Lord. During that thousand-year period, Satan will be bound in the bottomless pit so he will not deceive the nations until his short period of release as stated in Revelation 20:3,7-8. The faithful servants who have died for the cause of Christ will be resurrected before the millennium. They will rule with Christ and will be priests of God and Christ (Revelation 5:10; 20:4). The unbelieving dead will wait for the second resurrection (Revelation 20:5). After the thousand years, Satan will be released and will resume his work of deceit Revelation 20:7-8.

The most important aspect of the millennium is the reign of Christ. Peter taught that Christ now rules from the right hand of God in Acts 2:33-36. That rule will last until His enemies are made His footstool (Psalm 110:1). The apostle Paul taught that Christ will reign until all of God's enemies are underfoot (1 Corinthians 15:25-27). Therefore, the impact of Christ's present rule over the earth from God's right hand is just a small indication of His dynamic future reign during the millennium when Satan and his forces of evil will be locked in the bottomless pit.

The Great White Throne Judgment

The White Throne Judgment is the last great judgment. It is the judgment of all the unsaved from all ages (Revelation 20:11-15).

The basis for this judgment will be works, with different degrees of punishment. All who are not found in "the book of life" are cast into "the lake of fire." This is called "the second death," which means final and complete cutting off from God's presence and a sin-cleansed universe.

The New Heavens

The New heavens and a new earth" is a technical term referring to an important element of biblical eschatology. The phrase itself is found in only four passages. In Isaiah the new creation is promised in these words, for behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind" (Isaiah 65:17; 66:22). In 2 Peter 3:13 the new creation is identified as the focus of our hope: But according to God's promise we are waiting for a new heavens and a new earth in which righteous will dwell." The apostle John saw the inauguration of the age to come in which the promise is fulfilled: "Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away" (Revelation 21:1). The new heaven and new earth have through the centuries of biblical proclamation comprised the ultimate eschatological hope of the Christian. The hope for an age of complete blessedness in which the destruction of evil will be completed.
